FROM THE BOOKS

Colored Are Doing Well

A Bee representative takes facts from the books. The Bee informant misquoted facts.

In The Bee last week there was published a list of the salaries of the white and colored teachers in Howard University. The official register of teh institution shows the following:

During the present administration, five colored men, two of them representing the Alumni, have been placed on the Board of Trustees of Howard University.

The proportion of colored teachers employed in the several academic departments has been increased.

While 10 per cent increase has been added to the salaries of all professors in the academic departments, all of the large special increases in salaries have been given to faithful and efficient colored professors.

A t the beginning of President Thirkield's administration there was not a single colored employee in the University office; there are now one white and five colored employees. The office, besides being managed efficiently, being also a training school for the several assistants.

A prominent member of the Board of Trustees has said that there has been greater advance in the buildings and equipment of the University in the past three years than there has been in the past forty years.

During the past year a new steam heating plant has been installed and the Library and Science Hall, costing $140,000.00 are being built.

There has never been a time when the Alumni and friends of the University were more united and enthusiastic in its support. The Alumni are now united in raising $110,000.00 for a new gymnasium.

During the past three months two colored men were invited to prominent positions in the University but on account of other plans did not see fit to accept.

A Great Man

IN A GREAT WORK. DR. JAMES E. SHEPARD IN THE EAST

There is no man in this country who is doing any greater work than Dr. James E. Shepard, of Durham, North Carolina. The press dispatches show that Dr. Shepard, at Orange, New Jersey, Sunday, September 26, delivered three speeches in three different places to the largest crowds that have ever gathered in that place.

Tomorrow, October 3, Dr. Shepard will speak in Cleveland, Ohio, in the largest white church in the city. Monday night, October 4, he will address the ministers mass meeting of Cleveland, Ohio. Monday night, October 11, there will be a ministers' meeting held in Baltimore, Maryland, over which the Honorable George R. Gaither will preside. Dr. J. E. Shepard and Recorder J. C. Dancy will be the principal speakers.

Everywhere Dr. Shepard is booked to speak he receives the greatest ovation. There is no doubt that Dr. Shepard is engaged in work that the people in this country will support.

The Bee will from time to time keep its readers informed of the progress of the work in which Dr. Shepard is engaged.

Business High School

BOARD OF EDUCATION LAYS FOUNDATOIN FOR A NEW BUSINESS HIGH SCHOOL FOR COLORED STUDENTS

A desire to promote the commercial interests of the colored community has led the Board of Education to approve the recommendation of the Principal of Armstrong School and the Assistant Superintendent in charge of colored schools to place the business department of the Armstrong Manual Training School in a separate building where its work may be carried on in its own atmosphere free from the influence of the other courses offered at the manual training high school.

The work in the new building began on Monday; the brick addition to the old Mott schoolhouse at Sixth and Trumbull streets, northwest, just below Howard University, is being used and it is well adapted to the purpose. The Principal of the Armstrong School remains the administrative and supervisory head of the department; he has assigned five teachers to the work.

Two courses are offered; one for students who can afford to remain in the school only two years and the other for students who are willing and able to remain four years in order to gain a more thorough preparation for business pursuits. The school trains clerks, book-keepers, and stenographers; but, more important yet, it gives ambitious and promising young men and women such a training in the fundamentals of business as will enable some of them to eventually set up for themselves.

The graduates of the business department of the Armstrong School have already made a showing in the various business pursuits in and about Washington which justifies the school administration in feeling that the enlarged facilities for the department will prove highly serviceable. Already an enrollment of 85 students is announced; this enrolment, it is expected, will increase before the end of the week to at least 150. The business department enjoys the interest and support of the colored business and professional men of Washington and will be conducted so as to meet their needs.

Students who have completed the course of the elementary schools of the District or a fair equivalent, may enter the business department of the Armstrong School by applying at the old Mott schoolhouse.

Dr. S. L. Corrothers

DR. S. L. CORROTHERS' STIRRING SERMON IN GALBRAITH A. M. E. ZION CHAPEL

By Professor William H. Ferris, A. M., Principal of The Academical Department of the Afro-American School of Correspondence.

On Sunday morning, September 26, Dr. S. L. Corrothers, pastor of the Galbraith African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church, preached the second in the series of twelve morning sermons upon "The Need of Reformation in the Church" to a large and interested audience which followed with breathless interest his every word. Dr. Corrothers has preached many splendid stirring sermons in Galbraith Chapel, but last Sunday morning he blossomed out as a prophet and race statesman. His text was taken from Isaiah i: chapter 18, verse "Come let us reason together, though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be white as the snow, though they be red like crimson, they shall be like wool." and like the book of the greatest of all the Hebrew prophets, Dr. Corrothers sermon was characterized by spiritual insight into divine truth and by a broad statesmanlike grasp of public questions, as they affect the interest of the race.

Dr. Corrothers began by pointing out that the strife and unrest of nations was not due to the condition of their hearts and not to their poverty and exterior conditions. "The present generation" Dr. Corrothers said, was not altogether responsible for its condition, for the conditions that surround us have grown out of the past. And the conditions that confront us come from the past." In order to change the drift of public sentiment in order to change the conditions that we are facing we must not go forward, but we must go back to the past. The great and crying need of the present age is not the discovery of a new light, but the going back to the old truth and old light of the fathers.

The leaders of the Church, like the present day political leaders, have departed from the constitution. Our political leaders have departed from the spirit of the constitution and are now trying to repudiate the principles of the fathers."

Dr. Corrothers then complimented President William Taft for his recent letter to the Evening News of Baltimore, in which he said that the proposed disfranchisement clause of Maryland was malicious, designedly unfair to the Negro, against the spirit of and purpose of the Fifteenth Amendment. But Dr. Corrothers said that he would like to call President Taft's attention to the fact that the same conditions that he condemned in Maryland, prevail throughout the South. And Dr. Corrothers said that it required quite a stretch of the imagination to call the Southerners who had outraged and murdered poor helpless Negroes, kind and courteous, as our distinguished President has done.

Then Dr. Corrothers said that the blacks outnumber the whites in South Carolina, by one hundred and seventy-five thousand. They pay 40 per cent of the taxes for education and only receive 16 per cent of the money expended for schools and colleges by the State of South Carolina. The blacks are recognized by the constitution of the United States, which the Southern states are defying as citizens. They form the bulk of the population in the South and they pay a large per cent of the property, personal and school taxes, and are entitled to some political recognition. The principle of refusing to appoint colored men where white men object, carried out to its logical conclusion would mean that colored men in Boston, Chicago, New York and Washington could be driven out of Federal offices and out of the Civil Service and completely eliminated from the political life of the society of which they form a part.

In conclusion, Dr. Corrothers said that it is the duty of the Church and Negro pulpit to look out for the Negro's civil and political rights and not leave them to politicians and ward heelers. The Church must point out to the Negro the path of Liberty and life. The crisis is coming. The country at heart believes in justice nd fair play, and all the Negro needs is to be the being God intended him to be, when He formed him out of the dust of the earth, breathed into his nostrils the breath of a spiritual life and charged him with God-like hopes and aspirations which stretch beyond this vale of tears. The Negro needs character, built upon the grace of God, education, and money. Dr. Corrothers concluded his eloquent address with an appeal for men to consecrate their lives to God and with a plea for them to be true to the mighty hopes which made them men. A few came forward for prayers.

In the evening Dr. Corrothers preached another strong sermon from Revelation xxii: 5th verse, "There shall be no night there" and spoke of the home of the soul and its inhabitants. So impressed was the congregation by this fervent discourse that ten men, one a white man, came up for prayers.

During the past summer Galbraith African Methodist Episcopal Church has had the largest following in its history. People from every walk in life came to the church and crowded it to its doors. In the last few days the public collections in the Church have amounted to over $600. In July the church raised over $300 in public collections, in August over $400, in September over $600 and the coming fall and winter promises to be the most prosperous in the history of the church, both from a spiritual and a financial standpoint.

Dr. S. L. Corrothers is President of the Pastor's Congress of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church, whose object is to create a revival in every Zion church throughout the world. An aggressive campaign will be introduced in every A. M. E. Zion Church in the country.

Dr. Corrothers' morning sermons will be radical and practical and his evening sermons will be evangelical in character, but his burning theme in both his morning and evening discourses will be "Men must realize their end and destiny as spiritual beings and rise to fulfill it."

A GR AT MEEING

Woman's National Convention

COLUMBUS MEETING A RECORD BREAKER

Columbus, Ohio, Sept., 15.—There has never been held a Convention by Negroes, National in scope, complex in personnel, that aproached in excellence the meeting of the Woman's Convention, Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention at Columbus, Ohio, last week. The delegation was very large, representing nearly every state in the Union, retired foreign missionaries, outgoing missionaries, missionaries on furlough, and prospective missionaries from Africa, South America, and the West Indies. The meetings were held in the beautiful auditorium of the Second Baptist Church, Rev. A. D. Chandler, Pastor.

The Welcome Addresses were permeated with that cordial and "make-yourself-at-home" spirit that should characterize greetings of this kind. There was nothing stiff or perfunctory about any of the addresses. Mrs. Ella Wheeler Abner, of Texas, did not arrive in time to respond to the welcomes. Mrs. James P. Bryant, of Atlanta, Georgia, the able Vice-President, was asked to accept the kindly greetings on behalf of the Convention. She was equal to the emergency. Without notice or note, she held her audience spellbound for twenty minutes, while in simple eloquence she covered the field of our activities and related our struggles upward, and painted with the touch of a master upon the heart of every delegate, a picture of the future of the organization that stands for Christ and with Christ in the evangelization of the world.

The annual sermon was preached by the Rev. C. H. Parrish, D.D., Pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, Louisville, Kentucky, President Eckstein-Norton University, and Chairman of the Foreign Mission Board of theNational Baptist Convention. Dr. Parrish is not only scholarly, but he is highly spiritual. Under the power of the gospel he breathed into dry bones and made them witness for Him whose reign the Convention is laboring to establish.

The President's annual address was full of practical suggestions. She was requested to have it printed.

The Corresponding Secretary's report told of the work that had been done during the year, and the plans for the ensuing year. This report is in print, and may be had for 10 cents per copy.

Thursday night the Trustees of the National Training School had a platform meeting. Addresses were delivered by Drs. M. W. Gilbert,, T. L. Griffith, Walter H. Brooks, Professor Byrd Prillerman and Mrs. J. M. Layton. Miss Nannie H. Burroughs, the President-elect, delivered an address in which she discussed "What the Institution Will Do." This was one of the best attended meetings of the Columbus session, and enthusiasm ran high. Trustees from the various states were introduced, and three hundred dollars in cash, and heaps and piles of towels, sheets, pillow cases, quilts, and other supplies for the institution were laid on the altar, and dedicated to the Lord's service in the Institution by the Rev. G. B. Howard of Petersburgh, Virginia. The discussion on the question of "Preparation for Service" by the men and women on this evening, showed breadth of vision and accurate knowledge as to specific needs of those who are to become home-makers and race builders.

The Vice-Presidents and state representatives were called upo nto report their work for the year. Nearly every state responded, and the Convention was highly pleased with the good work done by these women in their various communities.

Friday morning was foreign mission period. The speakers were women who have been working at the foreign mission problem for a number of years. Their addresses showed intimate knowledge of missionaries and

WHEN NAPOLEON'S STAR SET.

Pathos in Last Address of Fallen Emperor to the Troops Still Loyal to Him.

It was at Fontainebleau that Napoleon received the pope in 1804. It was at Fontainebleau that he imprisoned the pope—the apartment which served as his prison is still shown—in 1812 and 1813. Finally, for Nemesis would have it so, it was at Fontainebleau that Napoleon signed his abdication and said forewell to his army in 1814, coming down the horseshoe staircase at the head of the Cour du Cheval Blanc, and placing himself at the head of the guard, as if for review:

"For 20 years," he said, "I have been well content with you, and you have always been with me on the path of glory. With your help and that of all the brave men who are still loyal, I could have carried on the war for three years longer; but France would have suffered, and I did not wish that to happen.

"I might have died—that would have been easy; but I would not. I prefer to follow the path of honor, and to write the history of our exploits.

"I cannot embrace you all, but I will embrace your general. Come, Gen. Petit. Bring me the eagle! Dear eagle. May these kisses find their echo in every brave man's heart!

"Farewell, my children!"

That, surely, is the most pathetic, as it is also the most dramatic, scene in the whole history of Fontainebleau.

STRANGE ACTION OF MEMORY.

Scenes of Other Days, Thought Forgotten, Are Suddenly Flashed Into the Mind.

Often suggestions out of all keeping with the surroundings come, and it may be asked, "What made you think of that?" Frequently we are positive that no conscious train of thought has brought up the idea. These memories, out of all rhyme and reason with our atmosphere and conscious occupation, pop into the mind and surprise us with their incongruity. Are these spontaneously originated as they seem to be, or have we merely forgotten the connecting train of ideas, as is often contended? The author but recently, while looking at some dill pickles, had flash upon his mind the image of a Southern California beach and an incident associated with the scene. The memory came so suddenly and the connecting link was sought for so immediately that a dropping out of a segment of consciousness is altogether improbable, yet he felt that there was a connection somewhere, if it could but be found. And it was found after a little thought. Where the brine on the pickles had dried, there were left fine, white salt crystals just as he had seen on kelp and sea mosses that he had gathered on that beach. The memory in the stream of consciousness was spontaneous, and yet we see how it may come under our law, at least in its physiological version. — From the Mental Man.

Her Choice.

They were sisters-in-law and reasonably well disposed toward each other. One was the mother of George, aged six months, and the other the mother of Marian, aged six months and four days. It was impossible that a slight parental rivalry should be altogether concealed.

"Marian does not seem to grow very fast," said the mother of George, with a suggestion of commiseration in her tones. "George is much taller—" (height being measured in inches).

"Perhaps he is," replied the mother of Marian, coldly, "but Marian weighs more."

"Oh, well," responded the sister-in-law, with a smile of high-bred superiority, "of course I should not wish George to be gross."

Drawings and Paintings.

The first sketch from nature which a great artist makes nearly always has a freshness which he only labors away in the picture he bases on it; and the rough pencil or charcoal lines of the former frequently reveal more of his feeling toward his subject than all his anxious manipulations of the brush. That is why it is so exceedingly worth while to collect and catalogue every scrap of drawing that once littered a great painter's studio. His drawings give you his intentions; his paintings do not always give you their fulfillment. It is true that a drawing is incomplete, but therein lies its charm. Possessing a drawing you possess a hope, and hope is better for mortals.—T. P.'s Weekly.

About Corn.

"I can't understand about the corn in this country, you know," said the Englishman. "It is the best vegetable you have here, you see what I mean? And you never serve it fresh. It is always canned, you understand, always canned.

"Now, why in the name of common sense do you take the fine, fresh article, you know, can it, and offer it to people to eat, when they might better eat it in its pristine condition? You see what I mean? Eh? But no, all the year round, they serve you canned corn, canned corn. Can they can it cheaper than they can cook it fresh? Is that it? Eh?"

HAD THE AUDIENCE WITH HIM

Christian Missionary Had Little Show in Argument with Native Mollah.

As a medical missionary, stationed for 16 years in northwestern India, near the Afghanistan frontier, Dr. T. L. Pennell had his share of peril and adventure, which he has recounted in a volume entitled, "Among the Wild Tribes of the Afghan Border."

As a medical man, Dr. Pennell had his ups and downs with the native doctors, who sweat their patients and burn sores with lighted oil, but have no faith in western treatment. They also bleed and purge; but gradually the new-fangled treatment was accepted, and grateful converts were made at the Bannu dispensary.

As a missionary, Dr. Pennell had to contend with the mollahs, who are argumentative and great browbeaters; and very often, he confesses, he got the worst of it by verdict of the ragged crowd that hemmed in the theologians.

With a certain mollah, who regarded the Christian medicine-man as a rival, Dr. Pennell had an amusing encounter.

"Do you know," asked the mollah, "what becomes of the sun when it sets every day?"

The doctor gave the native circle the scientific explanation.

"Rubbish!" exclaimed the mollah. "We all know that the fires of hell are under the earth, and that the sun passes down every night, and therefore comes up blazing hot in the morning."

All Dr. Pennell's accounts of natural phenomena were ridiculed by the mollah. Then, turning to his people, he said, with contempt in his face and voice:

"It is evident that I shall have to teach him everything from the beginning."—Youth's Companion.

ORIGIN OF BRITISH SQUARE

Battle Formation First Used by Scotch Troops at the Battle of Bannockburn.

The greatest of all Scotch anniversaries is that of Bannockburn, fought on midsummer day in the year 1314. Apart from its bearing on the independence of Scotland, the battle will always have an exceptional interest from the military point of view, as Bannockburn may be said to have been the birthplace of the British square. "Proud Edward's" army mainly consisted of cavalry, while that of the Scots, on the other hand, was almost exclusively composed of foot-folk, armed with the spear, and these Bruce threw into "schiltroms," or oblong squares—a formation borrowed by Wallace from the Flemings, who had employed it with success at Courtray—to resust the charge of the English cavalry.

Hitherto the mounted mail-clad knight had carried everything before him, but Courtray and Bannockburn proved that he was powerless to break resolute, spear-armed infantry drawn up in "schiltrom" or hedge-hog formation, and these two battles revolutionized the tactics of the continent and of our own island. Profiting by the lesson which had been taught them at Bannockburn the English applied the tactics of the Scots with brilliant success at Crecy, and still more at Agincourt. As it was the Scots who may be said to have originated the British square at Bannockburn, so it was they again who at Balaclava were the first to discard it with "their thin red line," and now, owing to our changed conditions of warfare, it is discarded altogether.

Duel with a Tiger.

Three Jakuns (aborigines) and a Malay chanced to be together in the jungle in Johore when they came across a tiger. They were only armed with parangs, and the Malay, wisely deciding in favor of discretion, took to his heels. Not so the Jukuns, however; for they at once determined to give battle, not utilizing their numerical superiority, but in the most sportsman manner arranging for the combat in a series of duels, if necessary.

As might have been expected, the series was necessary, and the end was not long in coming. The first man who entered the fray missed his blow and was at once struck down, and the same fate befell his two comrades, all three being killed.—Singapore Free Press.

For Parents Only.

Parents nowadays have good cause to grumble. When they were young, father and mother were paramount. Now that they are old, pa and ma don't count a straw.

"After all," exclaimed the young lady visitor to the paterfamilias, who had supplied her plate with all the choicest titbits from the roast fowl, "there is nothing in the world like the breast of a chicken, is there?"

"I can't say," replied paterfamilias enviously. "I have never tasted the white meat in my life. When I was young my parents ate it; now my children do."

Soldier's Odd Weapon.

A soldier named Paviet was condemned to death by court-martial at Oran, France, the other day. He was charged with assaulting a corporal whilst on duty. During the hearing he threw at the president of the council a curious weapon made by himself, the blade of a pair of scissors fastened into a wooden handle. He was at at once tried for this crime, and the death sentence pronounced.

WORTH ADVERTISING FOR.

There are 5,499 Negroes employed here in Washington by the Government alone, and these 5,499 Negroes draw salaries aggregating $3,044,404. These more than three millions of dollars are spent right here in Washington, but scattered among the hundreds of tradesmen Is this amount of money worth bidding for? It certainly is, and not even the largest stores in this city would refuse to get the big end of it did they but realize how much money the Negroes are really spending.

Now The Bee is the only Negro publication in this city. It stands without a rival or competitor, and covers the field like a blanket. If a few of the merchants in this city will patronize the advertising columns of The Bee, presenting the attractive bargains they may have, these Negroes — these 5,499 Negroes who draw annually from the Government over three millions of dollars — will assume that by patronizing a publication edited and operated by one of their race that such firms desire and deserve their patronage. And such firms will receive the bulk of these over thre milions of dollars received and spent by the Negroes of Washington.

What clothing stores, what furniture stores, what dry goods stores and what other lines of business will now make an effort to divert to themselves these over three millions of dollars spent by Washington Negroes by advertising in The Bee?

Place your advertising in The Bee and watch these 5,499 appreciative Negroes spend their over three millions of dollars with you.

Now is the time to advertise in The Bee, the newspaper that goes into every Negro home in Washington. Remember, merchants of Washington, it's what advertising pays you, not what it costs.

VICTIM TELLS HOW LOCKJAW FELT

Doctor was Worried When His Face Began to Stiffen—Fought Disease

St. Louis.—Dr. F. W. Grundmann of Washington avenue, who was pronounced out of danger from lockjaw, after suffering for almost three weeks, described how he felt during his illness.

"In diagnosing my own symptoms a week after the germs of tetanus had entered my blood, I thought I had the disease, but I was not sure," said Dr. Grundmann. "One day, as I was stepping off a street car, it started permaturely and threw me on my knee on the street. A hole was ripped in my trousers, and a gash cut in the flesh of my knee, into which earth from the street was ground.

"It gave me no trouble, pained me very little and I gave it no further thought. About a week later I found that I had fever and that the muscles of my neck pained me and were constricted. Next I observed spasmodic jerking of the limbs. These I knew to be premonitory symptoms of lockjaw.

"I was alarmed, naturally, but thought perhaps I might be mistaken, so I visited a physician and told him how I felt. He did not think seriously of the matter, and I believed I might have been mistaken, but nevertheless I was worried, and when that night the symptoms grew more pronounced and became more perceptible I watched them all the more closely.

"That night I got a real shock. I observed a growing rigidity of the muscles of the jaws. If it kept on they would become locked beyond all hope of unlocking them.

"In one day I had 6,000 units, about a fluid ounce, of the serum injected. My jaws continued slowly to grow more rigid, but we fought the disease with the serum until at last we saw that we had the disease going the other way, and we fought it out.

"The germs of tetanus may be in any manner of dirt. If you have a wound in your finger and go out into the garden and stick it into the fresh earth you stand a chance of getting lockjaw."

MISCHIEF MAKERS

There are people who are never happy unless they are making mischief. Old men and old women make more mischief to a square inch than any other class of individuals. The old man is worse than the old woman.

The mischief maker has a style and peculiar way of putting one against the other. The Bee has known where two life-long friends, living near one another in peace and happiness. Their happiness has caught the jealous eye of some mischief maker. The mischief maker will, in a sly way, say something that he knows will tend to sever their friendship. Some people will believe whatever is told them; whether it be true or false.

A man or woman who will believe anything and everything that is told him or her, you may conclude that he is a very weak man. A little expression said in a joke is often diverted to a great tale. Without thinking, the person to whom it is said concludes immediately that his old friend has been talking about him. Unless the man is strong in mind, he will believe the first story.

The mischief maker has a heavy eye. He cannot look you straight and honestly in the face. He will show his teeth and gums. His object is to separate you and your friend. You should never believe what is always told you. Never distrust your friend or one that has demonstrated his friendship for you, from what a mischief maker tells you. A mischief maker will extoll his own virtues and those of his immediate family. It is well that you don't believe any thing he tells you. If he has daughters, he will immediately tell you that his daughters are the personification of uprightness and their existence is no expense to him. He sees no good in other people: in himself he sees nothing but sunshine.

DEGRADING MOVING PICTURES.

A certain moving picture theatre offered as its bill last Sunday evening a series of pictures not calculated to raise the standard of morality, especially for children who attend. The first series showed a robbery scene. The next was a hold-up of a stage coach by highwaymen, including a barroom scene in which a double murder was enacted. The moving picture part of the show wound up with the pictures of the Nelson-Gans prize fight. During an interval a vaudeville skit was put on the crude stage, in which two colored fellows, outlandishly attired, got off a lot of stale chestnuts which were a mockery on the race, some very bad clog dancing, and some bad singing which was simply a travesty on music, for all of which they should have been run in by the police and given thirty days at least. Now this was the offering for the Sabbath Day to entertain an audience composed chiefly of young boys and girls in their teens. Such a bill would be bad if offered by a conscienceless fakir, but when it is known that a school teacher in the public schools of this city is the proprietor of this moving picture show referred to it calls for the severest censure from parents, and the School Board. No teacher should be allowed to remain on the payroll of the Washington schools who will offer such a bill for week days, much less for Sunday. The police should censor these moving pictures. There is a class of moving pictures that are highly edifying and of educational value, but the series offered last Sunday was positively degrading. Parents should see to it, if the police will not stop such disgusting and degrading exhibits, that their children be not allowed to attend. Such pictures, and such a vaudeville skit are disgusting and degrading even to adult persons. In the interest of the children and public decency, The Bee proposes to keep tab on these moving picture shows.

TAFT AND DISFRANCHISEMENT.

It is to be hoped that the letter of President Taft to The Washington Times denouncing the proposed disfranchisement amendment for Maryland will defeat the amendment. President Taft spoke out strongly on it. There was no misconstruing or misinterpreting his words. He was opposed to the measure, and unalterably so. He is sincere in his opposition. In a letter he wrote to Auditor Tyler last week he stated that he hoped the amendment wolud be defeated; that it was an outrageous thing, and that he wrote his letter with the purpose of defeating it, if possible. The colored voters of Maryland should thank the President for his interest, and the colored voters of the country should be thankful that a President stands committed against the passage of disfranchising laws. The Bee praises the President for his opposition to the Maryland disfranchising amendment. Taft's all right, and the race will find it out later, if this is not sufficient to prove he is a friend. Just putting men in office is not the whole thing. Protesting against and helping to defeat disfranchising measures is of more value than appointing fifty men to office.

WHITE VS. BLACK

There is a disposition on the part of some white officials in authority to show to the Negro that he is the white man's inferior. Wherever the white man is in control, he, to a great extent, exercises his authority over his subordinate colored brother.

The Bee is informed that the colored laborers in the interior department are badly treated. On the laborers' roll may be seen the names of several highly educated colored men, while many of these men are entitled to promotion they can never obtain one. The colored laborer in the interior department has a hard time.

The Bee is confident that Secretary Ballenger is not responsible for the condition of the colored laborers in his department. These are facts that should be investigated.

THE ADMINISTRATION

It may be apparent in the eyes of colored citizens that the Administration is inimical to him. The Bee denies the charge and is free to admit that the Administration is sound on the Negro question. The action of the Administration and every speech that has been delivered by Mr. Taft has been in defense of the Negro.

The Negro is disorganized. He has no force to demand. His ambition at this time seems to be for office, regardless of his political rights. It seems to The Bee that the Negro would be more interested in his civil and political rights than he would be in seeking an office, which should be an incident and not the direct object of his citizenship.

OPPOSED TO IT.

For the benefit of our esteemed contemporary, the Philadelphia Tribune, Dr. Washington had nothing to do with the selection of the president of the alleged National Press Association.

The Bee feels confident if Dr. Washington or Mr. Scott had been consulted, neither would have selected Mr. Thompson. The Tribune, as The Bee is, is opposed to a correspondent being at the head of an editorial press association.

The reason the Negro is not a factor in this country, is because he is not united.

Why are mischief makers tattlers, and why are tattlers mischief makers?

If the conditions at Howard University are as The Bee published last week, an immediate investigation is necessary.

Will some one state why it is that there are all kinds of organizations in the city, even among ants, except among Negro layyers?

Is Judge DeLacy practicing, the reason he so frequently occupies a seat upon the Police Court bench beside Judge Kimball?

The Bee has it from reliable authority that Congress will investigate the schools next year.

A resolution will be offered in the South in December, to investigate the schools. It is claimed that the colored teachers are in a state of collapse.

GREAT MEETING

their work. Nearly every speaker roused the audience and awoke in each heart a new consciousness of duty to the lost world.

Every address was the best.

Friday afternoon was social study. The home life of the race was discussed. Moral and industrial conditions were reviewed, and suggestions as to the best way to reach the unreached, were brought out in nearly every address. Every phase of Negro life, north and south was covered. Those who lead in the discussions during the foreign mission and Social Study periods, gave us in a nut shell, their version of the subjects, and clinched the arguments of those who had relivered the principal addresses.

Friday evening our young girls had the platform. Every available space in the church was occupied. Men and women who had attended all kinds of conventions in this and other countries, declared that it was the best meeting they had ever witnessed. They stood for hours and were swayed by the earnestness, the eloquence, and the enthusiasm of the young women, who have dedicated their lives to the Lord's service. Miss Katheryne Johnson, of Chicago, Illinois, presided. She is perfectely at home on the platform, and made a splendid presiding officer. The singing by the children's band of the Shiloh Church, of Columbus, was indeed a treat. The little soloist from Cincinnati, under Miss Fannie Blackburn, sang herself into the hearts of the people. The solo by Miss Jessie May Gross of Houston, Texas, showed the result servatory in Boston. The sweet sing- of her careful training at the Conser from Georgia, Miss Clara Bell Rivers, captivated the audience. Addresses were delivered by Miss. Ida C. Plummer, Mrs. Emma Lewis, both of Washington, District of Columbia, Miss Herbert Webber, of Indiana; Miss Willa Spaulding, Georgia; Miss Rosalie Hanna, Kentucky; Miss Delia Rudolph, Capetown, South Africa; and Miss Mary Buchanan, Middledrift, South Africa. These young women simply swayed that vast audience. Men and women wept like babes, others shouted for joy. Miss Geneva Cowels, the sweet singer of Ohio, was at her best. Our two African girls made a most profound impression, and helped the cause of Missions as perhaps no other speakers who have appeared before our National gatherings have helped. A national gatherings have helped. A cash offering of one hundred and fifty-three dollars, pledges for foreign mission, and hundreds of names of those who willl pray for the work that these young women will do in foreign fields, were laid on the altar. This was the most blessed meeting to us all.

Saturday morning, the Ohio Sulivered a splendid address on "How perintendent of children's bands deto Enlist Children in the Missionary Enterprise." Those who took part in the discussion gave many practical suggestions on how to make children's work effective.

The election of officers took place early Saturday afternoon. Some one remarked that this election was more like a love-feast than an election.

Officers:—S. W. Layton, Pennsylvania, President.

S. C. Bryant, Georgia, Vice-President.

M. V. Parrish, Kentucky, Treasurer.

N. H. Burroughs, Kentucky, Corresponding Secretary.

V. W. Broughton, Recording Secretary.

M. E. Goins, Assistant Recording Secretary.

E. Arlington Wilson, Historian.

Rev. A. C. Powell, pastor Abysinnia Baptist Church, New York City, preached the Sunday morning sermon. It was good to be there, to hear him talk on the "Transforming Power of the Word of God." The sermon was a masterpiece. Christ and the Cross stood out before us lighting up and transforming the entire human family. Men and women shouted for joy, as he talked with us by the way, and to all of us who heard him, the Bible has a new place in our lives, and in our homes.

Dr. A. S. Jackson was programmed to preach the Sunday evening sermon, but could not be present. Rev. A. A. Barbour, of Texas, preached for us. Dr. Jackson sent in his stead a hundred dollars and a student for the Training School. The officers were installed by the Rev. W. H Jernagin of Oklahoma. The President of the National Training School was presented by Mrs. M. V. Parrish, Chairman of the Trustee Board, and the Convention ratified the action of the Board at its June meeting in the selection of Miss Nannie H. Burroughs to take charge of the Training School at Washington.

Two distinguished women were the special guests of the Convention, and delivered inspiring addresses. One of them, Mrs. Katherine S. Westfall, Secretary of the Woman's American Baptist Home Mission Society, spent several days in our meeting. She brought greetings from her organization, delivered a most helpful address, expressed her very great pleasure at all that she had seen and heard and assured us that her society would be glad to know of the good work we are doing.

Mrs. Maggie Walker, the other guest of honor, President of the St. Luke's Bank, Richmond, Virginia, delivered a telling address. She declared that our convention is a great school in which we are doing a most wonderful work.

Professor Jones, Sociologist of Hampton Institute, delivered an excellent address and took occasion to commend the women for their splendid program. He said that it was one of the best he had ever seen. He was impressed with the arrangement and the practical, live questions discussed.

Can we account for the splendid meeting at Columbus? Yes. Early in June we sent out a card to the hundreds of women, asking them to pray that this might be the best session in the history of our organization. These cards were signed and returned to us. There were hundreds of women praying for the success of the meeting, and God heard them. Back of all this was the band of women who met every morning at eight o'clock to study God's word, and to seek His guidance. Mrs. S. E. Bailey, of Dermont, Arkansas, and Sister Joanna P. Moore, our veteran missionary, had charge of these meetings, and women came from far and near to study God's word under these consecrated leaders. The early morning prayer meeting was a blessing to us all.

Our Columbus meeting was a success, because we had an organized praying force back of it.

We offered a banner to the state bringing up the largest number of annual members. We could not award the banner in the meeting, for the reason that we did not have time to classify our reports. Louisiana is the banner state, having reported the largest number of annual members.

The grand total receipts at the Convention, including money for foreign missions, training school, and from the sale of supplies, is $1,620.08. Besides this money, we have received many useful articles for the Training School and pledges for help during the year. What more can we ask? The Lord hath abundantly blessed us, wherefore we are exceedingly glad.

The Trustee Board of the National Training School for Women and Girls, Washington, District of Columbia, held a most important meeting in the Second Baptist Church of Columbus, Ohio, Friday evening, September 17. The following officers were elected: Mrs. Mary V. Parrish, Chairman; Rev. J. M. Layton, District of Columbia, Secretary; Mrs. P. J. Bryant, Georgia; Treasurer.

The Local Executive Board was appointed as follows: Miss Martha Johnson, Miss Ida C. Plummer, Miss Emma Lewis, Miss Susie Robb, Mrs. T. H. Jones.

An Advisory Board was also appointed and consists of the following members: Rev. J. Milton Waldron, Chairman; George W. Lee, M. W. D. Norman, W. Bishop Johnson, Aquilla Sayles; W. J. Howard Dr. George W. Cabaniss, W. L. Pollard, Kelly Miller, Rev. James T. Clark.

The following teachers wer elected for the ensuing year: Miss E. Romaine Robinson, graduate of Boston University, History and Languages; Miss Hattie A. Shaw, Chicago School of Music, Instructor in Music Department; Miss Nannie Goodall, Pascal Institute, Dressmaking Department; Mrs. Emma Lewis, Superintendent of Supply Department; Miss Maggie Wall, Cairo High School, Teacher Current Events and Negro Literature; W. W. Russell, Poultry Department, American Poultry Institute, Rochester, New York.

Lecturers: Rev. M. W. D. Norman, Christian Evidence; Rev. George W. Lee, Personal Work; Rev. Walter H. Brooks, Church History; Rev. J. Milton Waldron, Old Testament Interpretation; Rev. W. Bishop Johnson, Biblical Theology.

FREEDMAN'S HOSPITAL

Dr. W. A. Warfield, Surgeon in Chief of the Freedmen's Hospital has submitted his annual report to the secretary of the Interior. Dr. Warfield has been a success at the institution, and he deserves credit for his businesslike and faithful management of the hospital since he has been in charge. Among other things Dr. Warfield says as follows:

"The work done at the Freedmen's June 30, 1909.

Hospital during the fiscal year ended

THhis period reprshrdlumcfhrrod

This period represents the first complete fiscal year the institution has occupied the new building.

The work of the hospital has been cvonducted with a marked degree of success, due in great measure to the harmonious relations of its several departments and efficiency of service by those connected therewith. At the close of the preceding fiscal year there were 131 patients remaining in the hospital. During the year just ended 2,346 were admitted and 244 births occurred, a total of 2,721 under care.

Of these 1,836 wer residents of the District of Columbia, and 885 wer from the states.

Two thousand five hundred and ninety-two were discharged, their conditions being as follows: 1,288 recovered, 915 improved, 121 unimproved, 7 not treated, and 261 died, leaving 129 in the hispital July 1 09. Of the death, 57 occurred within fortyeight hours after admittance, being absolutely beyond human aid when received and were only admitted as an act of humanity.

In the out-patient departmnet the following were treated: Medical, 1,457; surgical, 300; ear, nose and throat, 479; eye, gynecological, 192; nervous, 134; skin, 258; genito-urinary, 225; total 3,358, making a total of 6,210, in and out patients, receiving the benefits of the hospital.

Eight hundred and seventy-seven surgical operations wer performed—a larger proportion of which being of a major nature than ever before.

Patients from the District of Columbia are admitted under a contract with the Board of Charities at the following rates; Adults, $1.10 per day; children, $0.65 per day, and infants $0.40 per day. The appropriation by Congress for this purpose was $25,500. The bills rendered for the care and treatment of District patients amounted to $38,846.40, or $13,346.40 more than the appropriation. It would seem reasonable that the Commisioners of the District of Columbia should make their estimates to Congress based upon the actual number of District patients sent to the hospital.

The number of persons refused admision was 141, fifty-five of which wer due to lack of available beds at the time of application and 86 wer not proper subjects for treatment in this hospital.

CHRISITIAN ENDEAVOR

A large and enthusiastic audience of Christian Endeavorers filled the main auditorium of the First Baptist Church, 27th and Dumbarton avenue, northwest, Wednesday evening, to listen to the report of the Saint Paul Christian Endeavor Convention, by the pastor, Rev. E. E. Ricks, who was in attendance at the Convention held in July.

The church was tastefully decorated with United States flags and the St. Paul Convention flags; over the pulpit a large Christian Endeavor emblem was suspended while the motto of the Society, "For Christ and the Church" hung over a large United States flag that covered the desk.

A profusion of palms and ferns covered the front of the platform while smaller plants were arranged around the top of the galleries and in the windows; the whole giving the appearance of a miniature convention.

Miss Lillian Ford, the President of the Society presided and fittingly introduced the speakers who were Miss Hall, and Messrs. Miles and Cuney, who gave their impressions of the Convention; while Rev. Dr. J. Milton Waldron gave a brief talk on the benefits derived from the Christian Endeavor Societies and pledging his allegiance to the same.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Attorney Robert L. Waring Speaks Mr. Editor:

Time and again I have been asked the question, by parent-taxpayers and other interested people, "What do the people generally of the city of Washington think of the management of the public schools?"

So much has been said and so many "oily" newspaper articles, apparently inspired, bearing on our schools have been sent out of our city, that they may be little that is new left to me to enlarge upon. However, I shall endeavor to answer this question, partly from my own observations and partly from comments of those with whom I have talked.

Let us go back to the time just prior to the displacement of our former Assistant Superintendent by the present incumbent. At that the great Chancellor held forth. Doubts, fears, and turmoil permeated the whole system. No one person in the schools was sure of his position or certain as to the amount of remuneration he would receive during the following year. The then Assistant Superintendent was powerless to relieve the tension under which the teachers were working to remove the causes which brought about their doubts and fears or to squelch the factions that were at work undermining and sapping the life out of the system. Then came a change. A new head was secured for our schools. At that time I was asked what the people thought of the new Assistant Superintendent?" to which I then answered that he was regarded by all who knew him as a huge joke. I think the people in exceedingly large numbers are still of that opinion. The reason for this is not hard to find.

Who does not remember the alleged commencement exercises of our Normal, High, and Manual Training Schools at Convention Hall last June? A more regrettable, humiliating spectacle I never witnessed. Our boys and girls, fresh from their books, eager for the words of wisdom and encouragement which they expected on that occasion. They were proud that the President of the United States would greet them and present to them their diplomas. But what met their youthful gaze when they stepped upon the stage at their commencement? What was the condition of their young minds when the crator, selected for the occasion, arose and began his studied oration? Did they wonder, as I did, and as hundreds of others wondered, whether or not they were in attendance upon a Bowery ward meeting, something new to them, or were they really being graduated? I have not talked with one of these graduates who was not bitterly disappointed by this portion of the proceedings. But when I also noticed the presence of a number of politicians upon the stage and a number of vacant chairs that should have been occupied by Negro educators and saw that the President of the School Board had been superseded in the performance of certain functions that attached to his office, then I knew that something, almost a tragedy, was being enacted in the name of our schools, something that was sure to again hold us up to the world as incompetents and stamp us as people who have no conception of the eternal fitness of things. How much more fitting would have been the arrangement had it been possible for the person who had this demonstration in charge to have risen to the occcasion sion and filled the vacant chairs on the stage with Negro educators, some with and whose presence would be persons whose lives were in touch an inspiration to the young people who were being graduated? These same educators could have waited until the lordly politicians had clasped the Presidential hand, hoping to feel therein a few more years of official could then have been properly introlongevity. The educators, if need be, duced, with some show of dignity, thereby giving the President of the United States to understand, by contact, that there are some Negroes in Washington who are not office-seekers.

Through the kindness of the Assistant Superintendent, or some other person, I received tickets for six seats in Section "D" in the immediate front of the stage, among the distinguished persons whom the Senators and members of Congress who had received tickets had sent to these exercises in their stead. From this position I was permited to observe the various "stunts." Not being satisfied with my own impressions of this humiliating spectacle I talked with dozens upon dozens of representative citizens and tax-payers concerning this affair and their opinions are similar to mine. I am able, therefore, to give expression to what I believe to be the majority opinion of those present on that memorable occasion. Scarcely had the echos of this commencement celebration died down before there came the recommendations of the Assistant Superintendent over which another such howl, hue and cry was set up.

Next week, Mr. Editor with your permission I will give your readers a detailed account of the effect of those recommendations upon the parent-taxpayers, pupils and teachers alike.

Respectfully yours,
Robert L. Waring.
Attorney at Law.

The "reason why"

EVERY firm that extends credit searches for the most binding obligation to secure prompt settlements of its accounts.

Forty years of experience have shown us that no contract, lease or note is as effective in this direction as the customer's SATISFACTION.

Selling Furniture and Carpets that stand the test of time and service—and we replace them if they do not—

Making prices as low as those of the cash stores, for equal values—

Giving terms that are graded to correspond with the customer's resources.

These points make up the "reason why" we do not find it necessary to compel a purchaser to sign any contract, lease or notes, nor to pay any part of the bill with the order.

That's the way we do business with people who are furnishing homes, and we're ready to give you just that kind of an open account.

IT IS THE NEW EMANCIPATION PROCLAMATION

WASHINGTON IS THE SEAT OF OUR NATION'S GOVERNMENT.

The eyes of the world are on Washington..

One-third of Washington's population is Negro.

If all the Negroes in Washington were colonized in one place they would make a city larger than Richmond, Virginia.

There are seven theatres in Washington, supported by a white population of 241,923—and a few foolish Negroes willing to be colonized in the galleries, the only place to which the Negro is admitted.

THERE IS NOT A SINGLE FIRST-CLASS OFFICE BUILDING in the city of Washington, where a colored professional or business man or woman, and there are hundreds of them in the National Capital, can obtain business quarters.

JUST THINK OF IT! 100,000 enterprising, thrifty, intelligent people, through race prejudice, swept completely out of the business district of Washington; 100,000 genteel, prosperous, amusement loving people deprived of every form of theatrical entertainment unless willing to submit to the most humiliating conditions.

Every colored man and woman IN Washington.

Every colored man and woman VISITING Washington.

Every colored man and woman in America, familiar with the true state of the Negro in Washington, realizes that a theatre, store, and office building, operated by the Negroes, for the Negroes, is A NECESSITY.

The welfare of the race demands it.

Any enterprise resting its hope of success upon a NECESSITY is bound to be a SUCCESS.

A THEATRE AND OFFICE BUILDING IN THE CITY OF WASHINGTON, built by Negroes, for the use of Negroes, is a NECESSITY.

Appreciating to the utmost that fact—

THE LINCOLN MEMORIAL BUILDING COMPANY proposes to erect in the Central Business District of the city of Washington a magnificent theatre, seating capacity 2,500, and a store and office building of splendid proportion, adequate in every respect to meet the requirements of prosperous professional and business men.

The enterprise is exceptional in two respects:

First—It is absolutely safe.

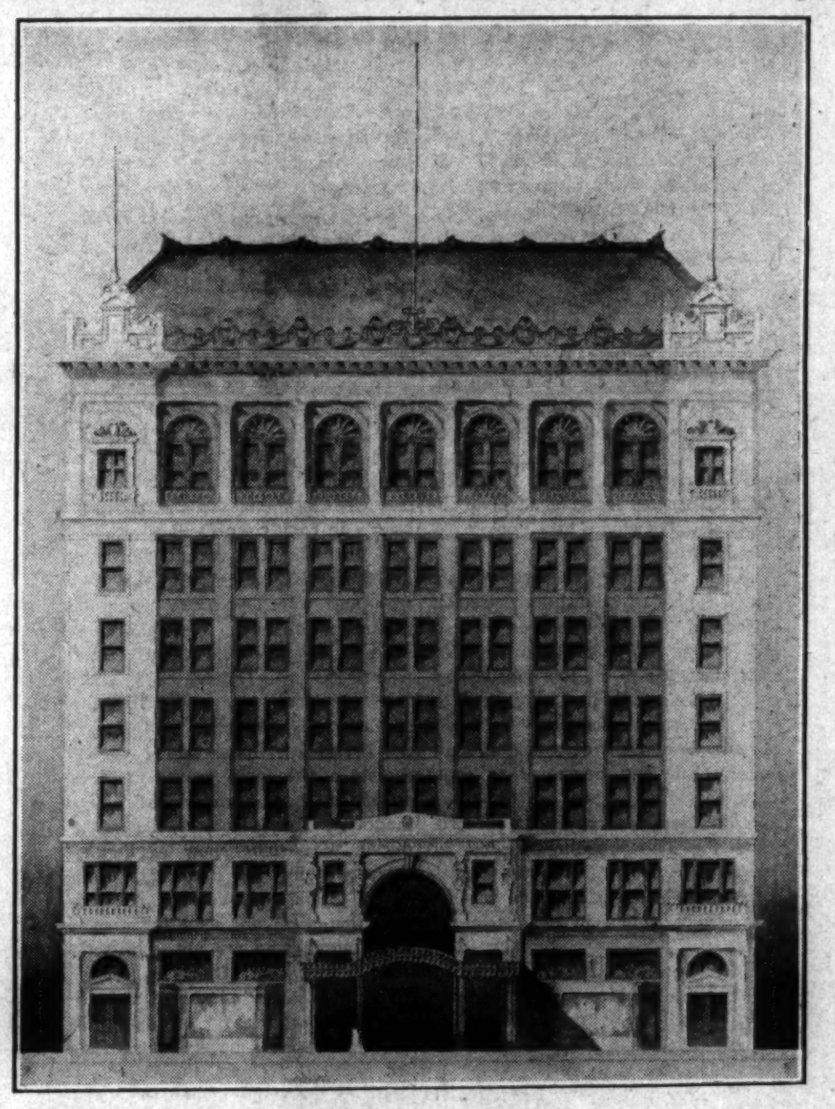
Features that must appeal to every man or woman with a few dollars to invest, and you are such a man or woman or you would not have read this far.

THE LINCOLN MEMORIAL BUILDING COMPANY has surveyed the field carefully, and it KNOWS that hundreds of tenants are available for the offices, that dozens of merchants are ready to rent the stores, and that 100,000 people are anxious to patronize the theatre exclusively, and make it the best paying amusement place in America.



Proposed Front Elevation
LINCOLN MEMORIAL OFFICE AND THEATRE BUILDING
WASHINGTON, D. C.

IT KNOWS ALL THIS AND IT INVITES YOU TO PARTICIPATE in an enterprise ABSOLUTELY DEVOID OF RISK, where every dollar will be invested in the best of Washington Real Estate, that increases in value annually at the rate of 5⅝ per cent—nearly DOUBLE bank interest.

Even that is good enough for most people, but the LINCOLN MEMORIAL BUILDING COMPANY will do better than that. It will have offices and stores and lodge rooms, which will earn, on a conservative estimate, at least $23,200 per year. Equal to 5 9-10 per cent per annum.

It will also have a theatre, which, if patronized at prices ranging from 10 to 50 cents, by only 1 per cent of the total colored population of the city of Washington, will enable the Company to pay 15 per cent on its total capitalization. Equal in all to 20 9-10 per cent, to which may be added the land value increase of 5⅝ per cent.

Now, all this is Conservatively Estimated.

Banks and Insurance Companies engage in enterprises like this with their depositors' and policyholders' money—YOUR money, but YOU get only about 3 or 3½ per cent. The banks or insurance companies keep the balance.

THE LINCOLN MEMORIAL BUILDING COMPANY is ENTIRELY NEGRO.

Not one dollar of white capital will be accepted in exchange for its securities.

There is not one dollar of Promotion Stock, consequently there is no watered stock.

Every holder of stock from the President down must pay at LEAST $10.00 per share for every share of stock allotted to him.

This does not mean that the price of stock will REMAIN at $10.00 per share. It is $10.00 NOW. It will advance in price far beyond $10.00, just as railroad and public utility stock goes to several times par. So will the Lincoln Memorial Building Company's stock go to several times its present value.

This means that a share of stock costing $10.00 NOW will be worth $40.00 when stock goes to four times par. Estimates show that the Company's earnings will be 20 per cent, and that is four times par, with every dollar invested in Real Estate. THE BEST in the city of Washington, where values are as firmly fixed as the Rock of Gibraltar.

This does not mean that the price of stock will remain at $10.00 per share. It is $10.00 NOW. If the Company, as it is estimated, pays 20 per cent, a $10.00 share of stock will be worth $40.00. If it pays 40 per cent, a single share of $10.00 stock will be worth $80.00. Just as railroads and public utility stocks increase in value, so will the Lincoln Memorial Building Company's stock increase in price.

The first allotment of stock at $10.00 a share is being rapidly subscribed, and the next allotment will be $12.50 per share, to which point it will soon be advanced; therefore, you are urged to avail yourself of the present opportunity to get in as completely on the ground floor as any one of the Company's Directors are.

The Company's Directors, by the way, are men of sterling worth, integrity and honor, as you are possibly aware, or can easily ascertain through any COMMERCIAL AGENCY.

Their names are at the top of this page. They have unbounded faith in the future of the Company. They have invested THEIR hard earned money in it, and they advise you to invest YOUR money side by side with theirs.

DON'T WAIT UNTIL IT IS TOO LATE.

The price of stock is $10.00 per share, payable $1.00 down and $1.00 per month for nine months upon each share subscribed for.

DO IT NOW.

Before you lay this paper down cut out the coupon on the lefthand corner of this page and mail to-day, with remittance for first payment, if for but one share of stock.

We shall be glad at all times to give you any further information desired, and again invite you to join us in this enterprise.

Very truly yours,

HE WANTED TO BE ON TIME

But It Is Probable Mrs. Blank Had Something to Say to Him That Night.

He was a very busy man, and, like all of his kind, he hated to waste time by unnecesary waiting. That was why in the midst of his correspondence, along about 11 o'clock the other morning, he paused, and, turning to his secretary, requested him to ring up his residence on the 'phone.

"Jemmison," he said, "get my house on the wire and ask Mrs. Blank to come to the 'phone. Just tell them that I wish to speak to her."

The secretary made off, and in a few minutes the required connection was made.

"Is that you, Mary?" he said.

"Yes," was the answer.

"Well, this is John," he said. "I have just rung you up to tell you that Barker was in here this morning with two tickets for the theater to-night. He and Mrs. Barker have been called suddenly out of town, and he thought we might like to use the tickets. How about it?"

"Fine," replied Mrs. Blank. "I have nothing else to do."

"Yes, I know," said Mrs. Blank.

"I thought I'd let you know in time, so that directly you have had your lunch you can begin to put your hat on," he went on. "Then we can get there before the middle of the first act. By-by, dear."

The only answer was an angry click at the other end of the wire, which seemed to indicate that another receiver was in trouble, but Mr. Blank only laughed as he returned to his work.—Lippincott's.

NO FOREST FIRES IN EUROPE

The question has been asked why there should be so many fires in our American forests when there are so very few or none at all in the forests of Europe. The answer is this, says Outing. When the trees are cut in the forests of Germany, France or Switzerland, the entire material in the tree is marketed and removed, leaving no inflammable litter on the ground. In our American forests, owing to lack of market for such material, fully one-half of the tree—the limbs, smaller branches, twigs and foliage—are left upon the ground, where they soon become dry and furnish material for a forest fire.

In the European forests every part of the tree, including the smaller twigs, is sold. The sale of this minor product constitutes over one-half of the revenue. Hence, when the forester is through with his tree cutting no inflammable material is left upon the ground. Now, if our Adirondack lumbermen could sell the limbs and tops of the trees instead of allowing them to go to waste for lack of a market, they would not be obliged to leave the ground encumbered with the inflammable debris and litter which is such a prolific source of fire, and which when ignited is so difficult to extinguish.

DEFENDS HOWARD UNIVERSITY

To the Editor of The Bee:

The tenor of the article published in your issue of last Saturday with reference to the affairs of Howard University, was to discredit the administration there, and to create a sentiment of mistrust concerning the exercises of fair play in the distribution of salaries by the authorities of the University. To those in a position to know the facts it is clear that The Bee has been greatly misinformed on the point of salaries, and of course The Bee will be glad to make proper correction when furnished with the facts in the case. But aside from this merely minor point, the larger fact is the influence which such articles are bound to exercises not only in shaping the public attitude towards the school, but also in affecting the spirit of loyalty in the student body. The Bee has always stood committed to the policy of progress for every public institution or organization devoted to the elevation of the colored race, and Howard University because of its location, its mission, its traditions and equipment stands foremost among such institutions. Can The Bee afford now, by such publications, to throw obstacles in the path of the University's progress? The past few years have witnessed a very gartifying improvement in nearly every department of the University, with respect both to its facilities and its attendance; and this is but the beginning of what is to be if the program of the authorities is not hampered by unwarranted criticism from the outside and a deplorable disloyalty from within.

Howard University, like every other large institution, has had its share of troubles from within and without, but it is now seeing the dawn of a bright day. It has a distinct mission leading to a splendid future; and it should be the pleasure, as it surely is the duty, of every alumnus and friend of the university to lend a hand to the work of accomplishing that mission and making sure that future.

This surely can not be done by fomenting internal dissention, inviting public criticism, and fostering the spirit of dsloyalty whch must needs result from unwarranted aspersions on its management.

"Let us have peace" there once more, and if we cannot help let us at least not hinder the good work now in progress.
